D E D I C A T I O N

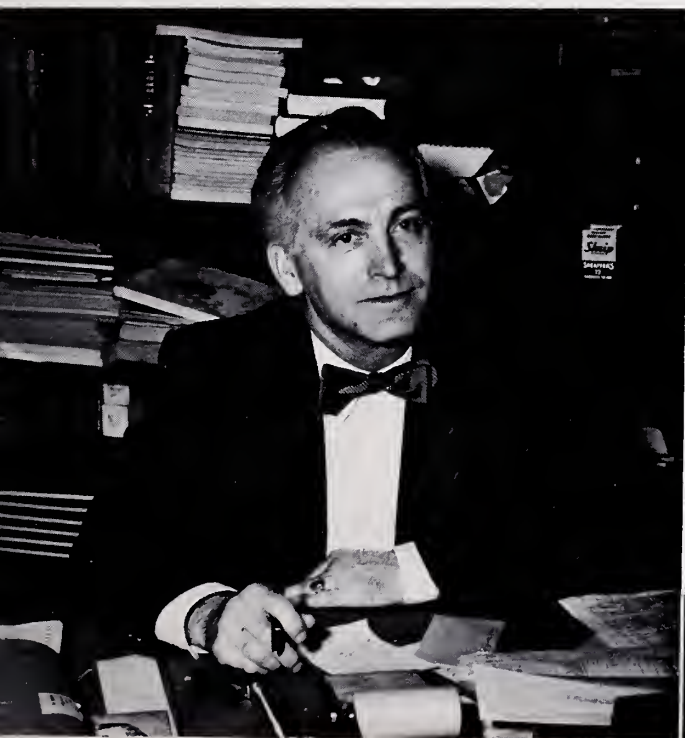

To Mr. Eugene E. Ross, our principal, whose sincerity and understanding have won for him the esteem and admiration of all who know him, this annual is dedicated.

A native of Lynchburg, Virginia, Mr. Ross received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Lynchburg College. He attended the University of Virginia as a graduate student before entering the University of Pittsburgh where he was awarded the Master of Arts degree.

Mr. Ross first came to Tazewell High School as coach in 1928. Four years later he went to Harpers Ferry, West Virginia, as coach and in 1935 became principal of the school. Last autumn, he returned to become principal of T.H.S. which had increased greatly in enrollment since he left twenty-two years ago.

In this one short year, Mr. Ross has found a place in the hearts of the students. Tazewell High wouldn't be the same without his friendly smile and who could ever forget his jokes! His generosity has made our principal also our friend.

For his interest and guiding influence in directing each of us in our ascent to the peak, we honor him with this dedication.

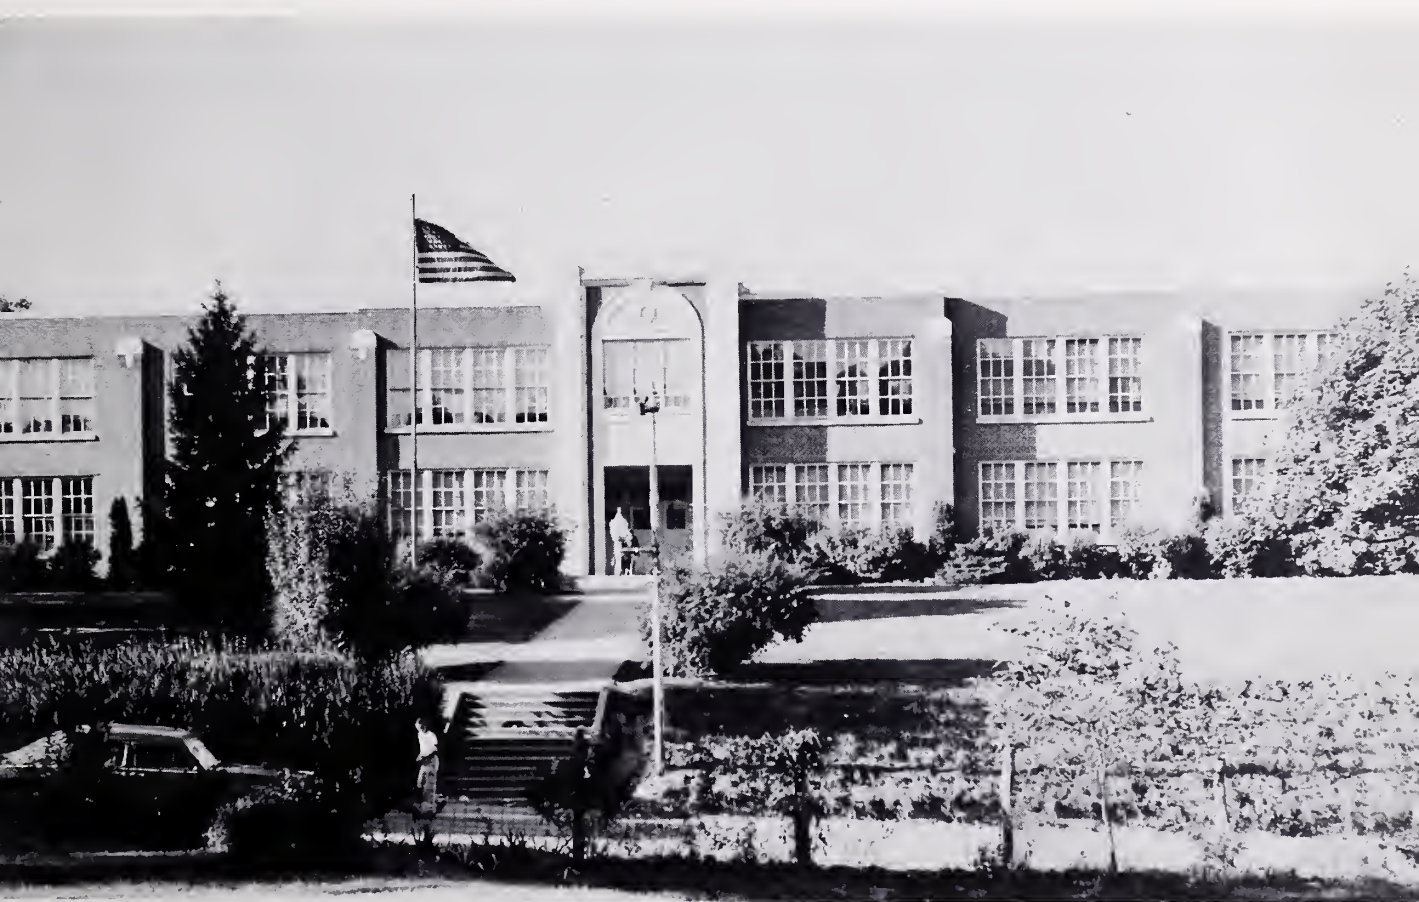

A T R I B U T E

With appreciation and praise we pay tribute to Mr. James A. Higginbotham for his faithful service during the past nine years as building superintendent. Jim, as he is known to us, greets us with a smile or a joking word, and he is never too tired to lend a helping hand when one is needed. Through his hours of work to make Tazewell High a better school, he has earned the respect and admiration of all the students.

FOREWORD

The annual staff presents the 1953 PEAK — a year's history of life at Tazewell High School. This ninth edition of our annual is a record of the laughs, the tears, the studies, and the friendships to be remembered in pleasant thoughts. It is our hope that through this collection of words and pictures we may relive those eventful days from September to May which are only a part of our ascent to the peak.

A YEAR IN THE LIFE

Peck-a-de-peck-peck—Forty words a minute - Don't work too hard, kids... "Hail, hail, the gang's all here"—Onward, Bulldogs—One hotdog and a cup o' coffee, please—We want a touchdown—Yea, Tazewell... I like Ike—Gladly for Adlai—Posters, leaflets, speeches, friendly arguments—Familiar sights and sounds during Tazewell High's mock election... I crown thee Queen of Homecoming—Congratulations, Miss Football Sweetheart of 1952...

OF THE BULLDOGS

"Jest so proud I could be hyar"—Laughter, songs, new discoveries at the Blue Moon talent show—Fun for all and all for fun at the school carnival... Ah, the Christmas Formal—Dancing in the dark—Silver stars—Dreamy music—Sheer magic... Serious moments of thought—Studying for those wicked exams at the end of the first term—Here's hoping I pass... Close score—Shoot, Bulldog, shoot—A breath-taking moment—The gym echoed with cheers...

LIFE OF THE BULLDOGS

"All the way around and a half way back" — Colorful balloons and Mardi Gras costumes — Loads of fun for everyone... "Please, I want that pink dress more than anything" — "Ugh, me like Great Spirit Messenger" — Lots of work — Lots of play... Spring sunshine and baseball — Ball one — Strike two — Here's the pitch... And now — The strains of "Largo" echoing the love, learning, and tradition that is T.H.S. — Congratulations and good luck!

Richard, It has been a pleasure (most of the time) to have you in class! Very best wishes for your success! Ruth Macom

Richard,
 I really have enjoyed having you in class even though we did have a few disagreements. I am sorry that I am so hard to get along with but I just don't seem to develop a good personality like you have. You are a nice guy Richard and have made the 8th grade a great class. But I like you very much.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS - Raymond Reed, president; Hazel Peery, vice president; Vaughn Cassell, secretary-treasurer.

They were filled with a combination of fear and excitement, those freshmen of 1949. They were continually asking stupid questions and getting into the wrong room, but they clung together and soon began to fit into the stagger system... and those freshmen are we, the seniors of 1953.

We were proud of the classmates who were chosen to lead our class; they were Kathleen Yates, president; Bob Repass, vice president; Jane McGraw, secretary; and Ronald Mitchell, treasurer. Our first thrill was the much anticipated freshman party where we played games, ate, giggled, and a few brave couples danced.

Another fall brought us our sophomore year. We elected Bob Repass, president; Charlotte Taylor, vice president; and Katherine Gillespie, secretary-treasurer. With the responsibilities placed upon us that year, we felt that at last we were becoming a part of T.H.S.

Our junior class officers were Ronald Mitchell, president; Jay Lockhart, vice president; Vaughn Cassell, secretary; and Margaret Beavers, treasurer. In the early spring, some of the talented members of our class presented the play, "No Soap." How well we remember the work and play involved in preparing for the prom—but oh, how we loved it! At the end of the year we elected new officers, and as we watched the "old" seniors receive their diplomas, we realized we were at last the seniors of T.H.S.

Our senior year brought us still greater responsibilities and privileges plus a new principal, Mr. Eugene Ross. Our class was led by Raymond Reed, president; Hazel Peery, vice president; Vaughn Cassell, secretary-treasurer. Homecoming, the Carnival, the Christmas Formal, the fun-packed trip to Washington, the senior play, and May Day were the major activities of our senior year.

Such are the memories of the class of 1953 and now graduation with the helpful speeches and the friendly handshakes. We say "au revoir" but not good-bye to our teachers and friends. We're not really leaving—for these memories that cling to our hearts will help us walk through the halls of our high school days and see again familiar faces we once knew.

Under the tutelage of Coaches LaVanche and Frei, the Tazewell pigskin force opened the season against the Virginia High eleven coached by the Bulldogs' former grid mentor Casto Ramsey. The Bulldogs led at the half 6-0, but the Bearcats' Glover sprinted 47 yards in the third quarter to make the score 7-6. "Cokie" Kitts thrilled the spectators with a 64 yard dash for a Tazewell touchdown and the final score of the game.

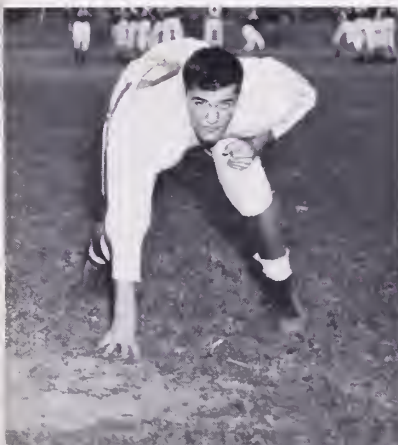

Next came the game with Emory and Henry's Frosh. The freshmen Wasp were leading 7-0 until Tazewell's fullback, Bill Peery, galloped 80 yards for a touchdown. Kitts added the extra point and the game ended in a 7-7 tie.

Gridmen from Tennessee High, Bristol, visited the Tazewell field on September 19. The mighty Bulldogs had two touchdowns nullified in the first half, but "Cokie" Kitts made one good in the third quarter and added the extra point. Jones of the Viking squad scored and the game ended in a 7-7 deadlock.

Graham G-Men invaded Tazewell on the following Friday and were turned back 27-13. Brewster and Peery recovered fumbles to set up different Bulldog drives while Wright, Kitts, Peery, and Nash led the way to the goal line.

The Bulldogs gained 275 yards on the ground with "Cokie" Kitts picking up 255 of the total yardage in the game with Richlands. Kitts plunged through the middle and raced 27 yards for the first score. Richlands marched 65 yards down the field to even the score before "Cokie" Kitts returned a punt 73 yards for another six points. Then Nash, Wright, and Peery alternated for 75 yards and another score. The Bulldogs came home with a 19-7 victory.

Tazewell's Bulldogs lost their first game in two years when they were chained by the Marion eleven 14-8. Kitts bucked the line for a touchdown and the entire Bulldog line pushed the Marion force behind their own goal line for another two points before the Marion team marched to victory on the field of mud.

Recovered from their upset, the Bulldogs blasted the visiting Northfork team 19-0. Terry and "Cokie" Kitts, Peery, Wright, and Nash were the outstanding players in this contest.

Tazewell's eleven then journeyed to Gary and were defeated 6-0. The Bulldogs racked up 13 first downs to the Coal Diggers' 5. Wasnuk fired a 50 yard pass into the end zone for the Gary tally.

The local's next win came at the expense of the Pocahontas Indians 28-7. Nash, the outstanding player in this game, made one touchdown on a 90 yard pass and another touchdown on a 40 yard dash to the goal line.

Returning to home soil, the Bulldogs made successful the first Tazewell High Homecoming by trimming a favored Pulaski team 25-0. Terry and "Cokie" Kitts, Nash, and Peery scored for the Bulldogs. The entire team gave a brilliant performance for the returning alummni in the last game of the season.

Every Thursday afternoon the presidents of clubs and homerooms gather in the lab for the meeting of the Student Cooperative Association.

This group, supervised by Miss Annella Greever, sponsors projects for school improvement, promotes cooperation and understanding between the students and teachers, and regulates student activities. To gain new ideas, the S. C. A. sends delegates to District and State Conventions and the Foreign Students Forum.

Projects, business, and socials are the major topics for discussion at the Y-Teen meetings held each second and fourth Tuesday of the month. These industrious girls this year sponsored a hay ride, several parties and a dance, prepared relief packages, and, as their officers show at right, decorated the second floor bulletin board each month.

Y-Teen officers for 1952-53 were Kathleen Yates, president; Gwen Mundy, treasurer; Joyce Erps, vice president; and Ann Repass, secretary. Their capable sponsors, Miss Sara Caldwell and Mrs. James LaVanche, assisted them in planning their program of activities.

F.F.A.

With an eye toward the future and an interest in agriculture the members of the Future Farmers of America meet each month with their sponsors, Mr. J. P. Buchanan and Mr. G. L. Santolla.

Projects of the F.F.A. include planting trees and shrubs, pruning the shrubbery on the school ground, and keeping the lawn clean. One of the highlights of initiation week is the day that all new members attend classes clad in old clothes and straw hats.

Club officers of the 1952-53 school term were George Lewis, vice president; Paul Yates, president; Gene Harris, treasurer; Amel Stevenson, secretary; and Lincoln Lockhart, watchdog.

First Row: George Lewis, Paul Yates, Amel Stevenson, Gene Harris, Lincoln Lockhart. F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization designed to interest girls who are taking home economics. These house keepers-to-be study cooking, sewing, nutrition, and interior decorating.

Supervised by Miss Martha Bowen, the group is active in the monthly meetings of the Bland-Russel-Tazewell Federation of the FHA Clubs. One of the outstanding social events of the year was the Mardi Gras party sponsored by these girls in February.

Officers for the 1952-53 school year were Billie Rae Lawson, reporter; Ann Asbury, secretary; Katherine Gillespie, president; Judith Wright, vice president; and Lucy Pennington, historian.

SPEECH CLUB

Seeking to become more accomplished in public speaking and dramatics, these students formed the Speech Club. During the year this club, sponsored by Mrs. Dallas Hubbard, studied speech composition and delivery, parliamentary procedure, puppets, and play production.

THESPIAN CLUB

Members of the Thespian Club meet daily to improve their dramatic ability through study and activities. The club named in honor of the Greek actor, Thespis, is sponsored by Mrs. Dallas Hubbard. The course of study includes acting, play directing, stage make-up, and play production.

Three of the club members—Gail Gregory, Norma Goodwin, and Sidney Hill—demonstrate the art of applying stage make-up in the picture at right.

Seated: Norma Goodwin (property chairman), Joe Wright (business manager), Joe Crabtree (grand director), Melster Neese (assistant grand director), Margaret Lawrence (recorder). Standing: Mrs. Dallas Hubbard (advisor), Anita Gail Gregory, Dale Goodwin, Harold Ball (stage manager), Claude Hamilton (prompter), John May, Sidney Hill, Erma Sue Gillespie.

ART CLUB

Supervised by Miss Ella Bryant Dickenson, Tazewell High's Art Club is open to all students interested in creative work. The members meet daily to work on various projects such as china painting, play scenery, posters, aluminum etching, chalk drawing, oil and water color painting.

Each year the members of the club enter designs for the minstrel scenery in the contest sponsored by the Lions Club. This year the prize was won by Cora Belle Whiting and Larry Tabor.

LATIN CLUB

Caesar's exploits and Roman mythology were the subjects of the Latin Club study this year. The club, divided into two groups and directed by Mrs. Bland Leslie, completed scrapbooks containing a variety of pictures and interesting articles on the Latin language and heroes studied. The year's activities ended in the initiation of the first year Latin students.

At right three club members—Jann Kensinger, Eddie Hymes, and Peyton Rowlett—are seen in the costumes which they wore in one of the Latin Club plays.

Members of the Library Club are the students who assist the school librarian, Miss Nancy Ward. Duties of these club members, who work part of each day in the library, include keeping the library clean and neat, checking books in and out of the library, cataloguing books, helping other students find reference materials, and decorating the library bulletin board.

Meetings are held each month. Book reviews, a study on the use of the library, and book repairing are among the activities of this club.

LIBRARY CLUB

Seated: Shelthy Marshall, Jo Ella Stevenson (vice president), Carol Crabtree, Loretta Young (reporter), Jo Ann Peery. Standing: Martha Lee Foote, Jackie Morrison, Ann Cox, Ann Repass (president), Miss Nancy Ward (advisor), Janice Meredith (secretary-treasurer).

A new organization, the Future Business Leaders of America, has caught the attention of the commercial students at T. H. S. The club which received its national charter this term is sponsored by Mrs. John Kulick and Mrs. William Bundy.

These business-minded students published a student directory, sold school supplies, helped sponsor Career Week, and gave several parties.

One of the purposes of the club is to encourage part-time work. Charlotte Doss, one of the future business leaders, is shown in the picture at right taking dictation in class and as a secretary in a downtown office where she works after school.
